

COLUMBIA REVOLT
1968, NEWSREEL COLLECTIVE

HUM 255
1970, KARTEMQUIN FILMS

The 1960s were a time of unrest at many campuses. Fueled by perceived racial injustices, students at the University of Chicago and Columbia University launched student protests that culminated in the occupation of administration buildings. Come watch two films, eat pizza, and discuss the significance of these events for student politics today.

TIME:
FRIDAY,
OCTOBER 29
6:00PM

LOCATION:
5710 S. WOODLAWN
COMMUNITY LOUNGE

chicago platypus1917
org